

Explorer

Do this exercise over 5-7 days and look for the new and surprising

- ☑ Identify and make a list people who's views you value or simply find interesting and unusual. Make sure that your list includes different perspectives Ask the people on your list for a short interview and be clear about the topic
- ☑ Define 2-3 broad questions to discover from them to discover what's happening in the world, what trends and technologies are shaping our future.
- ☑ Ask your interviewees for recommendations of websites, newspapers, videos and books that might be useful and interesting for your exploration
- ☑ Do a media research on the same topic
- ☑ Make notes of everything that draws your attention
- ★ If the world appears the same to you as before this exercise, consider it incomplete
